

Sr. Claire Patrice Fitzgerald '56 Alumna of the Year Nomination Form

We invite the Academy community to participate in the nomination process for the Alumna of the Year award for 2015. This alumna is someone whose personal, professional and/or social accomplishments reflect the core values of the Academy, and who has brought honor and distinction to herself, the Academy of Our Lady of Peace and her community through her positive presence in the world. The Academy especially values education and lifelong learning, artistic expression, advancement in the areas of the sciences, technology and engineering, intellectual rigor, service to the "dear neighbor," and the encouragement of religious faith. With a core mission, born out of the experience of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet, of ensuring that each OLP student becomes all of which woman is capable, a strong female leader conducts herself with a spirit of gentleness, peace and joy in her demonstrated field of endeavor is held in high regard. Submit your nomination to the Alumnae Office by August 31.

Nominee's Name and Class Year:

Nominee's Contact Information:

Please describe this woman's exemplary record of accomplishment in her chosen field of endeavor or in service to the needs of society with an attitude of gentleness, peace and joy. How is she a model of "all of which woman is capable?"

Describe the manner in which this candidate has conducted herself in accomplishing achievements. How have her actions impacted the OLP community, the Catholic Church or larger society?

Describe how this candidate reflects the mission and core values of the Academy of Our Lady of Peace and the Sisters of Saint Joseph of Carondelet. How has this candidate shown consistent loyalty to OLP through her interest or involvement in its students, its programs, its faculty, its alumnae events, or through her other activities?

Your name and contact information: